Orientation Programme
Every term, to make the new arrivals feel at home the International Office hosts the "Orientation Weeks". These are two weeks before the official lectures start which conclude many activities like a welcome breakfast, a campus tour, city-rally, a visit to the Art Gallery Emden and excursions to bigger cities nearby as well as to one of the East Frisian Island and many more. Furthermore we are offering German intensive classes as well as English bridging courses during that time.

Finding Accommodation
In Emden, there is one fully-furnished student dormitory, called “Steinweg”. Aside from that, it is also possible to find a (furnished) accommodation on the private apartment market. In case international students encounter problems finding something on their own, the International Office is happy to support them by providing addresses and links for finding furnished accommodation. However, the International Office is not able to take responsibility for finding something suitable.

Application for a room
If you want to apply for the student dormitory “Steinweg”, you need to apply directly using the following link: www.studentenwerk-oldenburg.de/de/wohnen/wohnungssuche-findingaccommodation.html

The student dormitories in Emden are not administered by the University of Applied Sciences Emden/Leer, but by the Student Services in Oldenburg (“Studentenwerk Oldenburg”). Since this is an independent institution, we cannot guarantee or take any responsibility for finding any room there.

Emden finds itself in the North of Germany in Lower Saxony and is a charming small town. Everything can easily be reached by foot or by bicycle and it’s a place where others come to make holidays. In general, our campus consists of two parts, one part is Leer where you can find the Faculty of Maritime Sciences and the other one is Emden where you find the Faculty of Business Studies, of Social Work and Health and of Technology which includes Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering and Natural Sciences.
