

SESCA
SELF EMPLOYED AND SMALL
COMPANIES ASSOCIATION
SPAIN

First European
Cyber Security
Seminar
Astorga, León. 14 & 15 July
2017

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS FOR VOLUNTEERS

What is the First European Cybersecurity seminar?

The First European Cybersecurity Seminar is the first seminar organized by SESCA on Cybersecurity topics. It will take place in Astorga (SPAIN) from July 14th to July 16th

It is a unique opportunity for European students to get involved in the most relevant Cybersecurity topics.

There is no seminar fee.

Application procedure

To Whom are the Scholarships addressed?

1. To students not older than 30 years
2. Who are citizens of any member state of the European Union or that have a Residence permit in the European Union
3. Who are finalizing their studies in an IT School or that are currently enrolled in an IT Post-graduate Programme. Young IT professors can also apply.
4. Who have rendered a motivation letter together with their CV through the Application Form
5. An Advanced level of English is absolutely necessary to apply (other languages will be a Plus).

What do we expect from our Volunteers?

In addition to attending some of the conference sessions at the Seminar, we expect them to actively collaborate with the organizers in the following tasks:

- Attendance to the different Sessions is compulsory to those Volunteers that are not performing other tasks.
- Volunteers, through small teams will prepare meaningful and relevant questions to all and each one of the Speakers.
- Volunteer Teams will also prepare Reports for each of the Seminar's Sessions
- Volunteers will participate in organizational tasks such as Logistics, Registration Desks, Preparation of Multimedia Devices and other.

Advantages of obtaining a Scholarship

- Full Board and Accommodation Fees exemption at the Seminar!
- Up to 250 euros Travel Expenses Reimbursement (See Notice below)*
- Possibility to attend to many sessions of the Seminar and thereby to acquire experience from different international Speakers and the feedback from qualified Company representatives.
- Each Volunteer will receive a Seminar Attendance Certificate from the Organizing National Associations, provided that the Volunteers have fully-complied with the Seminar Rules.

 NOTICE:

For the Travel Costs Reimbursement from the City of Origin to Astorga, proper original invoices will be required as proof of payment. The maximum Amount to be reimbursed is 250 euros for each Volunteer coming from Europe and up to 100 euros for Volunteers coming from Spain.

There are no Travel Cost Reimbursement for local Volunteers residing in the Vicinity of Leon and Astorga.

Please note that the Infringement of the Seminar Rules for Volunteers (Assistance to designated Sessions, Punctuality, Proper fulfillment of Reports and Question Tasks, among others) can imply the loss of Travel Costs Reimbursement and even the continuity at the Seminar.