International/national Mobility course 19/20

María Teresa Abad Soriano
Vice-dean for Students
7th November 2018
> Why?

- New knowledge (in technical fields, languages...).
- Improve your CV.
- Acquire competencies in a third language.
- Get to know other cultures, organizations, lifestyles, languages, people.
- Break stereotypes.
- Gain personal experience.
- Gain working experience in some cases.
> General requirements

- Available for all of our degrees:
  - GEI/MIRI/MEI/MAI.
  - The double degrees are specific for every degree.

- All the compulsory subjects must be passed before leaving.

- It is NOT allowed to take a subject at FIB while taking a mobility programme.

- Good academic performance is required, specially for double degrees and stays in the USA.
The enrolment is ALWAYS payed in FIB, not in the host institution.

Subjects must ALWAYS be arranged with the faculty before leaving → Learning Agreement.

Technical subjects can be taken, NOT necessarily similar to the ones in FIB.

The Transcript of Records will show all the enrolled credits.

Mobility credit limits (including Bachelor or Master thesis)
- GEI and Masters of 120 ECTS: 60 ECTS
- Masters of 90 ECTS: 30 ECTS
> Recognition

- The following do NOT have recognition:
  - Compulsory subjects already coursed in FIB
  - Language/cultural courses
  - Passed subjects that do not appear in the Learning Agreement

- The following DO have recognition:
  - Optional credits and/or
  - Bachelor or master thesis and/or
  - Specialization Complementary subjects

- There are up to 3 ECTS of recognition in GEI, depending on the academic progress, for a mobility of 1 semester.

Curricular internships = academic recognition

- Sign a Traineeship agreement (student, company, FIB).

- Usual Traineeship agreement content:
  - Amount of hours/workday:
    - Bachelor thesis (18 ECTS): minimum 360 hours (+ GEP).
    - Bachelor thesis + Internship (30 ECTS): minimum 735 hours.
    - 30 ECTS Master thesis: minimum 735 hours.
    - 18 ECTS Master thesis: minimum 430 hours.
  - Director, work to make, payment....
  - Authorization of the company for the work to count as the thesis.
The administrative process must be done in FIB:
- Looking for a presenter, registration, enrolment D modality...
- GEI students must curse GEP
- Thesis defence in FIB → Defence calendar!

Financial support
- Payment from the company.
- It is possible to ask for the Erasmus+ internship grant in case of an European company.

The offers will be published in FIB’s website, in the job bank...

Looking for a company yourself is very recommended.
NO curricular internship = without academic recognition:

- Sign a Traineeship agreement (Student, company, FIB) + insurance.
- During the stay, the enrolment only includes fee payment.
